New fittings to winter width mudguards, which, although easily detachable, will make them stronger and more substantial, consequently improving this pattern guard and increasing their popularity; and improvement and alterations to the Noweight mudguard extension, making them lighter in weight, with a reduction in the retail price to 1/-, will be some of the features for this year. Also the Perfection celluloid mudguard flap. This is moulded to take the curve and the radius of the mudguard, and as this is stiffer than either leather or leatherette, but yet flexible, it should prove an efficient mud-stopper. A beautiful

THE CYCLE AND MOTOR-CYCLE TRADER

November 30, 1906

INGDON ROAD, BLUEMEL BROS., LONDON. (233)

Here are the celebrated Bluemel goods and specialities, so favourably known. Inflators, cycle grips, saddles, and accumulators are on view in all varieties. A new feature of the inflator is the embossed grip on end of piston. The handle grips are also embossed in neat designs, and are all in one piece. A new celluloid flap for end of front mudguard is very neat, and retains its shape. It is easily clipped on the guard, and can be adjusted high or low. Some neat cycle luggage carriers and celuoid gear-cases complete an interesting exhibit of this firm's goods.
