

Commercial Information

LONDON GAZETTE

It is pointed out that winding-up proceedings and liquidations are frequently rendered necessary for the purpose of reconstruction, extension of capital, transfer of business, etc., quite unconnected with any financial embarrassment, and the fact that companies appear in this list, therefore, must not be taken as indicating any want of solvency. Whilst there is nothing in the ordinary official notification to show whether the case is one of formal winding-up for administration purposes or not, we shall be pleased to insert any explanatory notes that may be sent to us by those concerned.
